A Mother's Testimony

"I have found Baby's Own Tablets the perfect medicine for children of all ages," writes Mrs. H. H. Fox, Orange Ridge, Man., "and I would not be without them in the house. They are truly a comfort to baby and mother's friend."

Just The Thing for Baby.

Mrs. Ed. Jones, 55 Christiastreet, Ottawa, says:—"Have used Baby's Own Tablets and find them just the thing for baby."

IN MEMORIAM.

(In memory of Alberta Simpson, who departed this life, March 10th, aged 27 years.)

The mists of death have gathered
Dear Allie to the tomb,
But she through faith in Jesus
In Paradise will bloom.

A fairer, sweeter flower,
Than perfumed flowers here;
She suffered toil and death,
And gained a brighter sphere.

Poor Allie's face no more we'll see;
No more her voice we'll hear,
Till Jesus calls us one by one
Before him to appear.

She saw the angels hovering round
To bear her home above;
Their shining faces beckoned her
Away to realms of love.

Oh how sad! for father, brothers,
Here at home so sick to be;
Separated from that dear one
Whom they longed so oft to see.

But the sadness of the hour
When the news had reached that home,
That the spirit of their loved one
To another world had flown.

But, dear parents, think of Allie,
As a shining angel bright,
She is resting there with Jesus,
In that home where all is light.

Jesus took her up to Heaven
And he scattered all her fear;
He can heal the broken-hearted,
And can dry the mourner's tear.

I will send those verses, dear ones,
To you as in memory given.
Though in homes we're separated,
May we all meet up in Heaven.

London, April 9.—The Standard publishes a thrilling despatch, showing that Lieut. Bruce Carruthers of the Canadians was the hero of the day at Harts River. The Canadians were attacked by a force seven times more numerous, which they held at bay for two hours, until all but fifteen were killed or wounded. Lieut. Carruthers was the only officer who was not either slain or seriously hurt. He had several flesh wounds, but he has stoutly refused to go to the hospital. When he was taken prisoner some of the Boers wanted to shoot him there and then, but they ultimately thought better of it, saying he was too brave a man to die in that way.

London, April 9.—The correspondent of The Standard at Klerksdorp, Transvaal Colony, has cabled a graphic account of the battle at Harts River, March 31st, in which the British lost three officers and 24 men killed and had sixteen officers and 131 men wounded, while the Boers had 137 men killed or wounded.

A small force of Canadians and mounted infantry, the correspondent says, were opposed by sevenfold their number. Six hundred Boers charged, confidently calling upon them to surrender.

Lieut. Carruthers of the Canadians sprang to his feet, and exclaiming that he would not surrender, shot the foremost Boer with his revolver at a distance of fifteen paces. The Canadians had no cover except the short grass. Lying prone upon the ground they fired steadily, and forced the Boers to seek the shelter of a screen of trees. Many of the Boers climbed these trees and fired down on the Canadians. The latter kept the enemy at bay for two hours.

When all but fifteen of the British troops were killed or wounded, the Boers ventured another rush and captured the handful of survivors.

MAJOR WALLER'S DEED
Says He Was Told to Kill and Burn Everything in Samar.

Manila, April 8.—Major Waller, at today's session of the court-martial, by which he is being tried on the charge of executing natives of Samar without trial, testified in rebuttal of the evidence given yesterday by General Jacob H. Smith, who commanded the American troops in the Island of Samar. The Major said General Smith instructed him to kill and burn, said that the more he killed and burned the better pleased he would be, and that there was no time to take prisoners. He was to make Samar a howl

Picton, Pr. Ed. Co., Ont., Canada.

I am seeking information on my Canadian ancestors and wonder if you could help me.

My great-great grandmother Sophia Gibson Taylor died 31 August, 1918, at Lot 4, Presque Isle. Her husband was Newman Taylor. Her parents were Joseph Gibson and Nancy Simpson. She died at the age of 94 years.

My great-grandparents, Delbert
Taylor and Lizzio (or Melissa) Cole were married at Hamilton on 21 October, 1887. Delbert Taylor was from the Township of Brighton. His parents were Newman and Sophia Taylor. Lizzio Cole was from Picton. Her parents were Nelson and Hannah
Cole.

Is it possible that past editions of your newspaper printed the news of the above death and/or marriage?

If so, what would be your fee for receiving a copy of the articles?

Thank you very much for your assistance.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas J. Sullivan,

$27.11 per hundred weight. Over the past year, prices to producers have averaged about $1.00 per hundred weight more than the national support price.

Under the deficiency payment method of support, the Agricultural Stabilization Board will determine at the end of 1961 the national average price to producers at which Grade A hogs were sold. If this average price is less than the support price of $22.11 per hundred weight, then a deficiency payment equal to the difference will be made to each registered producer on a maximum 100 Grade A or Grade B hogs.

21,113 HOGS MARKETED IN 1960

Prince Edward County producers marketed 21,113 hogs in 1960, a decrease of 4,506 when compared with the 1959 figure of 25,619. The production of Grade A hogs increased slightly from 31.9% in 1959 to 32.2% in 1960. Waterloo County was highest with 41.9 per cent of all hogs marketed falling in the A Grade. There is plenty of opportunity for improvement in this field and much can be accomplished by paying attention to the feeding programme and making sure the hogs are marketed in the correct weight range. Where type has been a factor particular emphasis should be placed on the selection of high quality breeding stock.

Simpson

My original Simpson ancestors came from England and settled in South Carolina U.S.A. early in the Eighteenth Century. It is presumed that they previously came from Scotland (?) to England.

Obed Simpson and his son "Obed" joined Howe at Yorkton and sailed with him to New York. In 1784 he and his son "Obed" went to Halifax N.S. where   died.

James signed a petition to King George III about 1776 not to enforce the Stamp Act, as a representative of South Carolina.
